

Colorado Springs & Cripple Creek

July 1 - 5, 2010

Annual classic that features FOUR nights in ONE hotel!

Day 3 CB, D Colorado Springs, CO

Spend the day exploring the wonders of Cripple Creek! This former mining boom-town boasts a rich, local history and all your favorite casino games. Begin with a ride on the Cripple Creek Train and hear tall tales of the early days, see the original mine and enjoy spectacular mountain views. Afterwards, explore the museum, shop for rare and unique treasures from local shops or try your luck in one of the many themed casinos as you tour this bustling area on your own. In the afternoon, travel to the magnificent Garden of the Gods for an unforgettable look at dramatic rock formations created millions of years ago and a state-of-the-art movie presentation about how these towering giant monoliths were formed. This evening enjoy dinner in a unique local restaurant.

Day 1 Colorado Springs, CO

Head west this summer for breathtaking natural beauty and spectacular mountain vistas around every bend as we travel to Colorado Springs where we will spend four nights and four days exploring Native American history, geological wonders and historic trains against the backdrop of the glorious Rocky Mountains.

Day 2 CB, L Colorado Springs, CO

Begin the morning with a ride on the Royal Gorge Route! Since 1879, riders have experienced Colorado history on the spectacular 24-mile journey through the breathtaking Royal Gorge. Bask in the sheer cliffs, amazing wildlife and magnificent natural beauty of this incredible place. In the afternoon, travel to quaint Manitou Springs and visit the rare, historical Manitou Cliff Dwellings. Authentic Anasazi ruins built more than 700 years ago have been preserved under a protective sandstone overhang at the foot of Pike's Peak and offer an incredible look into the ancient lives of past cultures.

Day 4 CB, D Colorado Springs, CO

All aboard Pike's Peak Cog Train this morning for a journey up the magnificent mountain and a glimpse of nature that can only be seen from a train. From the brisk alpine air and towering aspens, to wildlife around every bend: From the fascinating history of the train to the unimaginable view from the top, this is a journey you will never forget! In the afternoon, travel to the Air Force Academy and learn about the dedication and training of the cadets who live there, tour exhibits and explore the magnificent Cadet Chapel. This evening, enjoy a chuckwagon dinner and live western entertainment that will give you the experience of the "real" Colorado!
