Big Apple & The Capital

September 9 - 14, 2009

Fly to New York, see the sights and sounds of both NY and D.C. and then fly home!

Day 3

Washington DC

Enjoy the famous East-coast fall foliage today as we travel to our nation's capital, stopping at the unforgettable Hillwood Estate and Gardens. This is the former residence of Marjorie Merriweather Post, known as America's first businesswomen and an avid art collector. Enjoy your first night in Washington!

Day 1

New York City, NY

This fall, explore New York City and Washington DC! Today, travel by air to the Big Apple. Once we arrive in NYC we will begin our adventure with a visit to St Paul's Chapel. This is the church where George Washington attended services when our nation's capital was New York City. Next we will visit the Tribute WTC Visitor Center. As we visit the five galleries that make up this Tribute to the World Trade Centers, we will remember the events of September 11, 2001. Feel free to sightsee on your own this evening and late into the night as our hotel is located near Times Square!

Day 4 D

Washington DC

Experience the heart of cultural D.C. today as we travel to the monuments and museums of the historic National Mall to explore the amazing collection of art, artifacts and exhibitions of the Smithsonian Institute. With 19 museums and exhibits ranging from the exploration of space to dinosaurs that lived 65 million years ago, this utterly unrivaled collection of knowledge will amaze and delight you. This evening, enjoy a delicious meal, perfectly prepared. This authentic German restaurant has been serving great cuisine since 1948.

Day 2

New York City, NY

This morning we will begin our day with a visit to the Empire State Building. We will go to the 86th floor of this well-known landmark and look out at the view of the Big Apple below. Next we will take a tour of the famous school of performing arts, Juilliard. A student guide will show us around so that we can get a glimpse into student life and see where the students take classes, practice and perform. This evening, welcome to the glitz, glamour and fabulous lights of Broadway! Take in a thrilling theatre experience with amazing scenery, talented actors and a musical score that will be performed in that one and only Broadway Style! (show will be announced approximately 30 days before departure)

Day 5 L

Washington DC

Discover America's first home, George Washington's historic Mount Vernon Estate & Gardens in a unique way. Cruise down the Potomac River enjoying the view of Mt. Vernon. As we explore this famous residence, see exhibits featuring Houdon's famous bust of the legendary General, Martha Washington's clothes and personal items as well as furnishings, writings and historic pieces owned by the first President of our Republic. Lunch will be included at the Inn before going back to the city.

Day 6

Home

Today we will board a flight home and be back before you know it after a whirlwind of adventure in the Big Apple and Washington DC.
