

Australia & New Zealand

January 25 - February 10, 2009

Explore "the land down under" without packing & unpacking!

Sydney, Australia

This "capital of the Pacific rim" offers sights like the Opera House, an incredible harbor and the golden sands of Bondi Beach. You'll have a full day to explore this wonderful city at your leisure before embarking on the cruise.

Melbourne, Australia

Experience the melting pot that is Melbourne as you travel from Chinatown to Little Italy. Australia's financial and commercial heart also offers one of the world's finest parks, the Royal Botanic Gardens.

Hobart, Australia

Discover Hobart, the state capital of Australia's heart-shaped island, Tasmania. Explore the colonial village of Battery Point and the Tasmanian Museum.

Fjordland National Park

Cruise the majestic home of the Fjordland crested penguin, 14 fjords and five icy-blue lakes in southwest New Zealand's breathtaking World Heritage Area.

Enjoy 13 nights aboard the Diamond Princess!

Enjoy a night in San Francisco and a night in Sydney before your cruise!

Dunedin, New Zealand

Uncover the city's Scottish heritage - Dunedin is the old Gaelic name for Edinburgh - as you meander its octagon-shaped streets with their quaint Victorian buildings.

Christchurch, New Zealand

Roam the heart of the city's Cathedral Square, steeped in 19th-century English flavor. Float down the meandering Avon River or tour the stately Christchurch Cathedral.

Tauranga, New Zealand

Water sports and deep-sea fishing abound in Tauranga Harbour. Venture to Rotorua with its healing, natural mineral springs.

Auckland, New Zealand

While your time is limited here, take some time to shop in this city that is home to one-third of the country's population.
