

Nova Scotia Cruise

September 12 - 20, 2008

Reserve your seat early on this trip to some beautiful countryside!

Day 1 New York, NY

Start spreadin' the news, we're leaving today for New York, bound for beautiful Nova Scotia! This seven night, round trip cruise takes us up the New England coast into Canada, with gorgeous fall scenery the entire way. Board a flight to the Big Apple today, where we will stay overnight.

Day 2 D New York, NY

We're on our own in the morning, so make the best of it! But be back for an afternoon boarding, when we begin our luxurious adventure to Nova Scotia aboard one of Carnival's newest ships, the Victory! We'll be treated like royalty this week, and it begins tonight with a fabulous dinner as we set sail.

Day 5 B, L, D Saint John, NB

Saint John is rich in history, nearly 400 years old. This harbor town is located at the mouth of the St. John River on the Bay of Fundy where the exceptionally high tides cause the falls of the St. John River to go in reverse!

Day 6 B, L, D At Sea

Let the funship experts cater to our every whim during this day at sea, anticipating a fabulous day in Halifax tomorrow.

Day 7 B, L, D Halifax, NS

Hundreds of kilometers of incredible coastline with majestic scenery from end to end qualifies Halifax as perhaps one of the most beautiful capital cities in the world. We'll find the perfect blend of big city excitement, small town charm and natural pristine beauty. There's plenty to see in Halifax. From picturesque fishing villages, to vibrant shopping districts. Not to mention impressive galleries and museums, historic sites, fine restaurants and colorful gardens.

Day 8 B, L, D At Sea

One more day at sea should give us time to take in activities we missed last time. And don't forget to eat!

Day 9 B Home

Say farewell to our ship and hello to an easy flight home after a grand New England and Nova Scotia tour.

Day 3 B, L, D Boston, MA

With street patterns owing to 17th-century London, Boston, "America's Walking City" and home of the original tea party, is a beautiful city, full of historic sites. From Bunker Hill to the U.S.S. Constitution, this gateway to New England boasts many famous places to visit. Boston has some of the most well preserved historic buildings in the country, and it's compact enough so that we can see them all on foot.

Day 4 B, L, D Portland, ME

Big city excitement with small town charm – we'll find it all in Portland, a 360-year-old city rich with history and culture. Picturesque cobblestone streets lined with Victorian-era buildings, a vibrant waterfront, one-of-a-kind shops and galleries, historical homes and museums, and plenty of restaurants to suit our culinary fancy. And all within walking distance!
